ABSTRACT
Alabama author’s manuscript for the 2000 book, Common Threads.

BIOGRAPHICAL/HISTORICAL NOTE:
Kathryn Tucker Windham is an author and storyteller born in Selma, Alabama in 1918. She was trained as a journalist and worked for several news agencies in Alabama. In 1964, Windham began to publish and has since won numerous awards for her nonfiction and journalism. Her 1969 work, Thirteen Alabama Ghosts and Jeffrey, brought her... popularity and was the first of several books she has written about ghosts. Her long career has also included a run as an essayist on National Public Radio’s All Things Considered.
