Preferred Citation note

Calvin R. Daggett Letter, W.S. Hoole Special Collections Library, The University of Alabama.
Biographical/Historical note

In 1850, Calvin R. Daggett was living in Nashville, Tennessee.

Scope and Contents note

The collection contains a letter from Calvin R. Daggett of Nashville, Tennessee, to Chandler Bradford of Turner, Maine. After receiving letters from his parents who have already gone west, Calvin decides to travel west, too. He mentions the profits to be had in land ownership in the west. He also tells Bradford to send him any "good, likely" girls that want to go to Wisconsin he would be happy to take them there and guaranteed they would be married in three weeks even "if I have to take one myself."
