E. Commercial use, Fees, Publishing and Permissions for images from the Hoole Library

The Hoole Library reserves the right to deny reproduction of any image for reasons of preservation, unusual format demands, or copyright restrictions. Orders totaling $50 or more require advance payment.

*Commercial use: The Hoole Library charges a standard fee of $50.00 per image for any images reproduced in a commercial setting.

Formal permission is required for any use of image outside of research purposes (commercial use*). Permission forms should be requested and completed forms are to be submitted to Jessica Lacher-Feldman, Curator of Rare Books and Special Collections for the Hoole Library (jlfeldma@ua.edu/205.348.0500).

Standard turnaround time for all orders is 8-12 business days but can take less or more time depending on size, format, or other issues. All approved requests are completed in the order that they were received.

The undersigned patron making the request is required to secure all permissions and licenses from the holders of copyright, if any, outside of the Hoole Library.

The patron assumes all responsibility for any infringement of copyright or any other intellectual property issues associated with the materials they request.

I have read and understand the above policies, and agree to adhere to said policies. I understand the associated fees required for my request and agree to pay for the reproduction of items listed on this form.
