

Celebrate International Education Week!

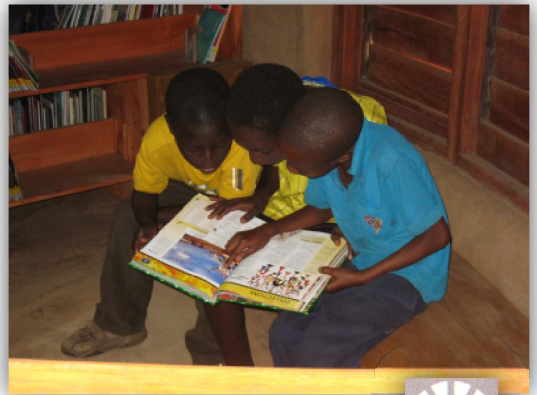

Please join us for a talk with:

Jane Meyers

President,
Lubuto Library Project, Inc.

Headquartered in Washington, DC with an office in Zambia, the Lubuto Project gives the burgeoning numbers of street children in Africa, beginning with one hundred libraries in Zambia, the opportunity for non-formal education, improving literacy, language skills, general knowledge and participation in society.

This event is co-sponsored by UA Libraries, Capstone International Center, New College, Community Service Center, School of Library and Information Studies, and the Alabama Chapter, SLA

From 3-5 pm on Thursday, November 15, 2007
in Gorgas Library room 205
