

The Bankhead Lecture, UA Department of History, along with University of Alabama Libraries & the generous support of Dr. Lakey and Susan Tolbert present --

OF ONE LAW & ONE BIRTH: THE INCA MODEL OF EMPIRE

with Susan Elizabeth Ramirez, Neville G. Penrose Chair of History and Latin American Studies at Texas
Christian University (Fort Worth, TX)

Susan Elizabeth Ramirez has written three major books. The most recent, entitled To Feed and Be Fed: The Cosmological Bases of Authority and Identity in the Andes (Stanford University Press, 2005), is a new interpretation of the rise and fall of the Inca empire. It argues that the Cuzco, now known as the highland capital of the Incas, was (before colonial times) instead the title of the Inca ruler, considered a living man-god, descended from the Sun.

4:30 pm on Wednesday, October 22, 2008
in Gorgas Library room 205
