

The University Libraries Lecture Series is made possible in part through the generous support of Lakey and Susan Tolbert.

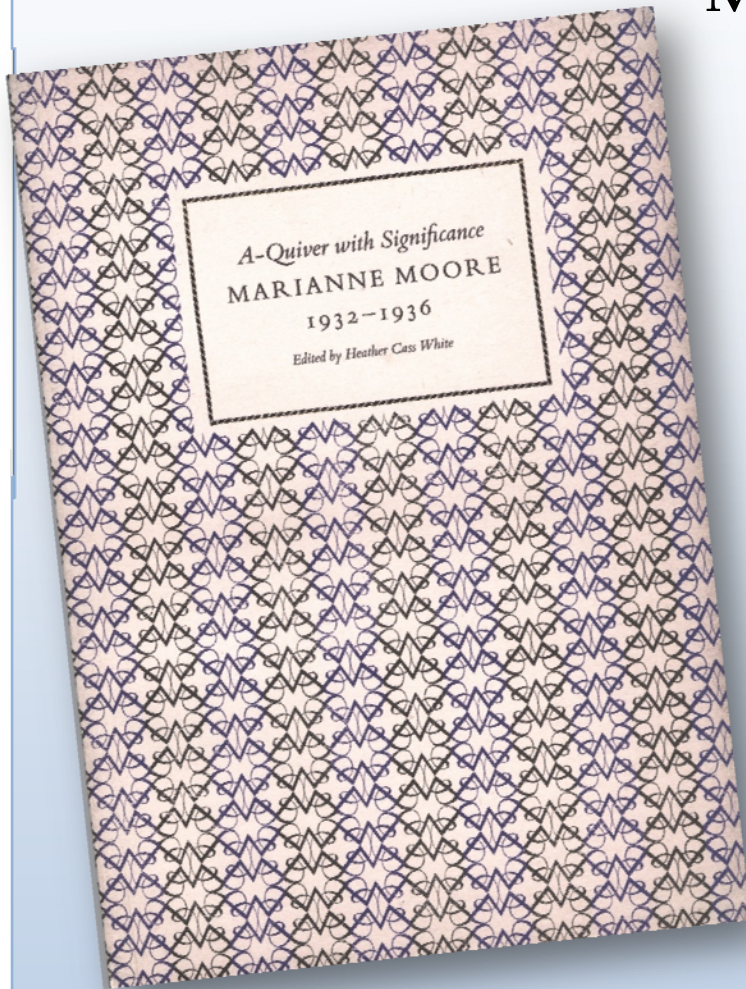

Dr. Heather Cass White, Associate Professor of English
The University of Alabama will read and discuss her book --

A-Quiver with Significance:

MARIANNE MOORE

1932—1936

(ELS Editions, 2008)

“Building the edition off of a facsimile reprint (from the original at the Hoole Library!) of Moore’s powerful collection of poems, The Pangolin and Other Verse, makes good sense given the importance of the volume to her modernist peers. As White notes, Moore paid particular attention to the ordering of her verses in this collection, as she did to every aspect of the book’s production. The volume makes an excellent case study in the ways in which the material presentation of a book of poems can prove vital to addressing the content of the verses within.”

- Robin G. Schulze, Pennsylvania State University, editor of Becoming Marianne Moore: The Early

4:00 pm on Wednesday, October 15, 2008

Gorgas Library Room 205

A reception and signing will follow the reading. This event is free and open to the public.

Visit www.lib.ua.edu/events for more information on all University Libraries Events

Jessica Lacher-Feldman at jlfeldma@ua.edu or 205-348-0500. Join the UA Libraries Lecture Series on Facebook!

University of Alabama Libraries ... Books and So Much Moore! Visit www.lib.ua.edu